

NEW BOOK, JUST OUT, SETS A WHOLE CITY TO TALKING TO-DAY

It's Nearly Certain You Figure as a Character in the Story.

We look in the whole history of literature, with the possible exception of the Bible, will be read and reread as much as the book which hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers are perusing to-day for the first time. And just some one suspect the origin of this review, let it be understood clearly that this is not an advertisement—it sets forth nothing but facts. The first edition of this work is an output of over 500,000 copies, which has already been disposed of, and another edition of 500,000 is being prepared. Every class of society has been waiting its turn with impatience, and now that it is out the book is being read with the closest attention and interest. It is hard to classify this book. For while it is full of information to many people it will bring laughter and tears and the whole gamut of human emotions and interests and often the very essence of romance. Looking as it does in incident and action, the narrative as a whole is rather monotonous. But what it lacks in action and narration it more than makes up in the great number and variety of characters which appear in it. Furthermore, it becomes highly interesting from the great number of characters which the average reader will know and recognize. Indeed, in many cases the readers will recognize themselves in the characters in the book. In short it is safe to predict that the whole city will be set to "talking" by this latest edition of the New York Telephone Directory.

MRS. SHERMAN GETS ALL.

Short Will of the Late Vice-President Filled for Probate.

UTICA, Nov. 12.—The will of Vice-President Sherman was admitted to probate in the Surrogate's Court here yesterday. The document is very short, is in Mr. Sherman's handwriting and bears date of April 23, 1887. After the usual preamble he names as his executor his widow, Carrie Babcock Sherman, and wills all of his estate to her. In her petition she declared the estate to be of value "exceeding $10,000." The extent of the estate is only conjectured, but Mr. Sherman was credited with being one of the wealthiest men in this locality.

We are the largest Diamond Importers in the United States. We sell diamonds direct to the consumer. It requires more time, thought and money to purchase from us than from any other source. We have devoted the last thirty-one years to selling our diamonds direct to the consumer at the lowest possible price. Our agents know the Diamond market and take advantage of every cash purchase in America. Antwerp and London, the Diamond centers of the world. We can truthfully say we sell our diamonds in many instances for one-half the price Retail Jewelers must charge who buy them on credit, after they have passed through several hands, and they obtain them direct from the Diamond cutting mills to the consumer.

See our window display of over half a million dollars' worth of diamonds. All diamonds marked $5 to $5,000.00.
